Memories 1970

Volume XVIII
Broadway High School
Broadway, Virginia

Ex. 1. Determine a line

The Moving Finger writes; and, having writ,
Moves on: nor all your Piety nor Wit
Shall lure it back to cancel half a Line,
Nor all your tears wash out a Word of it.
The Rubaiyat of Omar Khayyam

A black and white photograph of a snowy landscape. In the foreground, several evergreen trees are heavily laden with snow, their branches drooping. In the background, a building with a dark roof is visible against a bright, overexposed sky. The overall scene is quiet and wintry.

Memories . . .
fragile bits
and pieces of fleeting experience

Memories—
in the commonplace

... and in the unusual

Memories—
in concern . . .

. . . and in ecstasy

Experience—suspended on the edge of expectation . . .

. . . then gone forever—
only to return in Memories

FACULTY

Mr. Moyers

Mr. James Moyers bravely assumed the multiple responsibilities of principal of Broadway High School this year. His days begin early, end late, and are filled with the pressures of correlating the activities of over a thousand people.

. . . on the move!

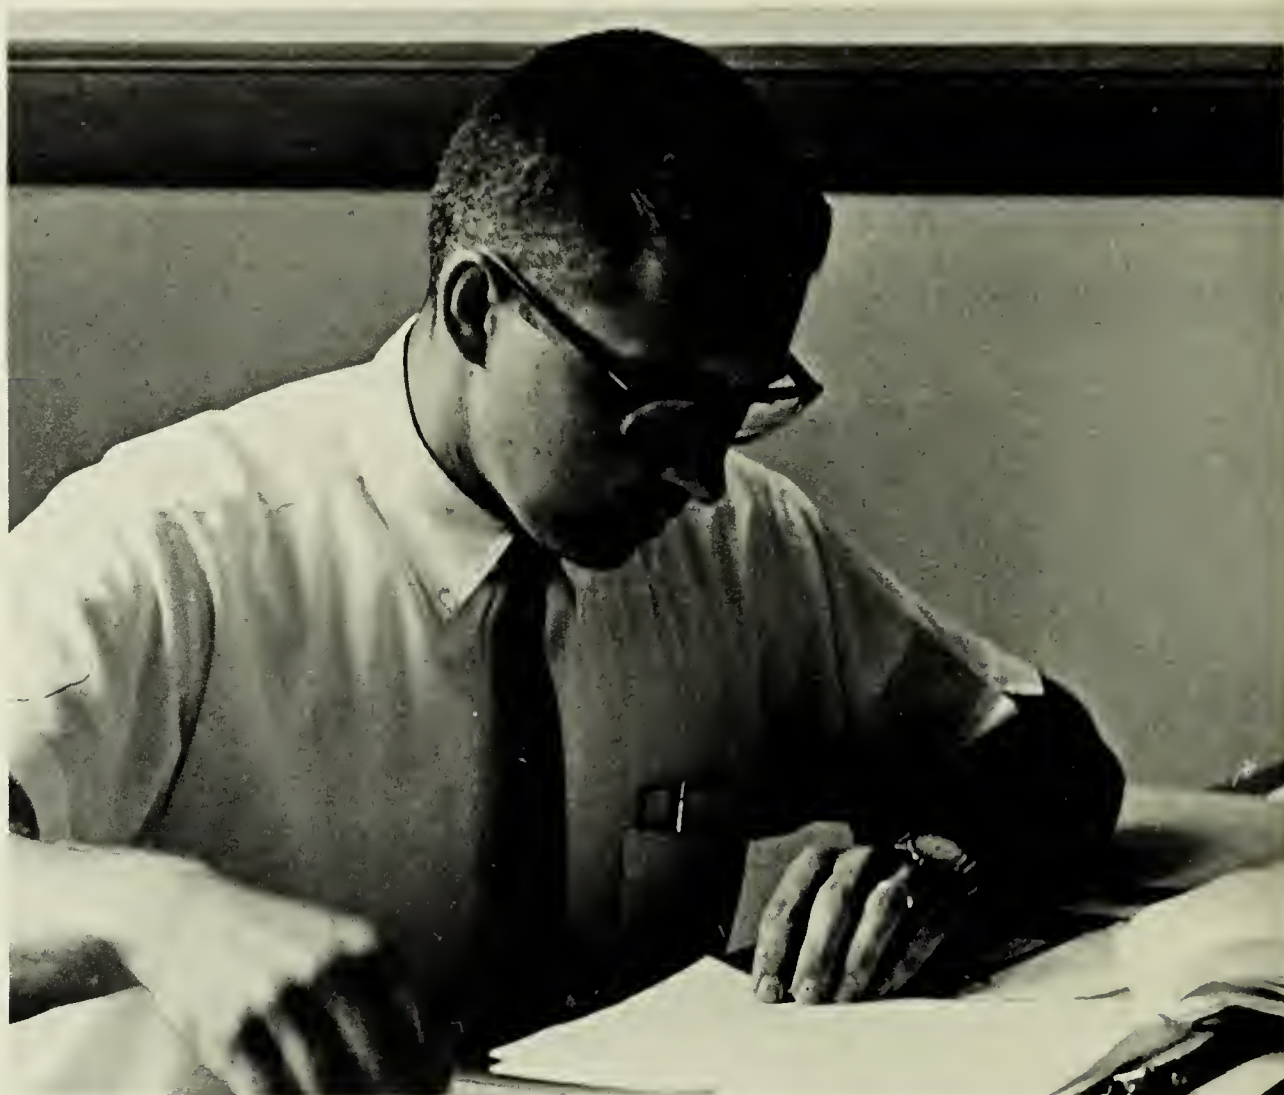

Despite his many administrative duties, he still finds time to visit with the students in the halls, give private counseling, and take an active interest in all school activities. Mr. Moyers emphasizes the very important aspect of a personal principal-student relationship. He has made a good beginning and the Memories staff wishes him continued success.

Administration, the inner workings of BHS

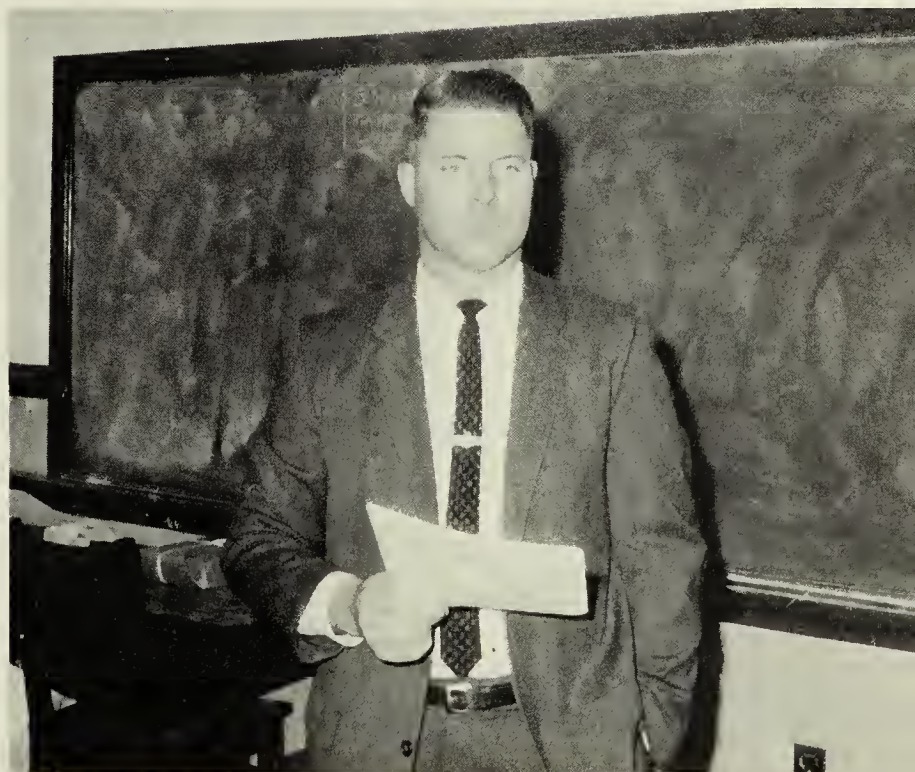

As Assistant Principal, Mr. Dodrill finds his tasks numerous. Doing paperwork, supervising detention hall, and planning ball games are all part of Mr. Dodrill's day.

As the school secretary, Mrs. Fulk plays an important and hectic role. She handles correspondence and financial paperwork, answers the telephone, and acts as traffic director for Mr. Moyer's busy office.
